REGENT PREPARATORY SCHOOL OF OKLAHOMA

Admission Policy

Regent Preparatory School of Oklahoma welcomes you to its admissions process. Regent invites you to become acquainted with the School through its website, an on site visit, or through a conversation with a member of the administration.

The goal of the Admissions Committee at Regent Preparatory School is to bring together a student body that will grow spiritually, intellectually, and physically. The Admissions Committee seeks to determine what is the best for each child as well as for the school. Each candidate's academic potential, scholastic motivation, character development, and extracurricular interests will be taken into consideration. New students will be accepted based on these factors rather than on the chronological order in which applications are received. Due to the magnitude and importance of its task, the Committee's independence and integrity will be guarded.

Prospective Parent Open House

Regent hosts several open houses annually to give interested parents the opportunity to talk with the faculty, administration, and parent representatives. An overview of the school philosophy is presented, and faculty members are available to answer questions about curriculum. In addition, the Headmaster will gladly answer questions regarding the admission process.

Tuition Assistance

All admission decisions are made independently of a family's request for tuition assistance, although students receiving tuition assistance are expected to demonstrate by their grades and behavior that they are deserving of Regent's program. There are no academic scholarships. Applications for tuition assistance may be filed online with FACTS Grant and Aid Assessment at www.factstuitionaid.com. The application process is confidential.

Application Procedures

1. A complete application package includes:
 - the application

- the $100 fee
- a recent photograph (optional)
- signed Parental Resolve and Covenant
- official copy of candidate's birth certificate

2. Ask two teachers who know your child well to complete the Teacher Evaluation forms and mail them to Regent in the envelopes provided.
3. Using the Transcript Request form, ask your child's last school to send a record of his or her grades and standardized test scores from the previous year.
4. Call the school office and schedule a date on which one or preferably both parents can observe in a classroom.
5. Bring the candidate for testing on the scheduled date. All applicants must take an admission test. The Class 1 test consists of two parts: a) a standardized test of verbal and quantitative aptitude; b) a standardized school readiness test. For candidates applying to Class 2 and above, the test consists of two or three parts: a) a standardized test of verbal and quantitative aptitude; b) a standardized achievement test in reading comprehension and in math concepts and problem solving. A writing sample is also required from students testing for Class 4 and above. Members of the Regent faculty administer the admission tests. The observations and results are submitted to the Admissions Committee and are for their use only. Prospective parents will receive a letter notifying them of the Admission Committee's decision.
6. Complete the required reading materials provided by the school prior to the parent interview.
7. Both parents must attend an interview that will be scheduled by the Admissions office. Candidates for Class 6 and above will also be interviewed.
8. Submit one half of the yearly tuition and the signed Enrollment Agreement as specified in the letter of acceptance.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe that the Scriptures are the very Word of God in their entirety and, therefore, are our authority in matters of faith and practice.

We believe in one God, creator of the universe, eternally existing in the persons of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

We believe that Jesus Christ was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, crucified for our sin, and raised from the dead in eternal victory. He is undiminished deity and genuine humanity in one person.

We believe that Heaven is the abode of God and the place of eternal joy for the saved, and that Hell is the place of eternal punishment of separation from God for the lost.

We believe that the Holy Spirit is a personal Being who convicts the world of sin and who regenerates, indwells, empowers, guides, and seals believers eternally for God.

We believe that God created man in His own image, and when man disobeyed God, he fell from grace and brought sin into the world. We believe that God offers redemption and restoration to all who confess and forsake their sin, seeking His mercy and forgiveness through Jesus Christ (Acts 3:19-21; Rom 10:9-10).

We believe that regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely necessary for the salvation of lost sinners, and those who receive the Lord Jesus Christ by faith are born again into the family of God.

We believe that the family of God is the Church, which is the body of believers of which Christ is the head.

We believe that God wonderfully and immutably creates each person as male or female. These two distinct, complementary genders together reflect the image and nature of God (Gen 1:26-27). Further, we believe that the term "marriage" has only one meaning; the uniting of one man and one woman in a single, exclusive union, as delineated in Scripture (Gen 2:18-25).

I have read and am in agreement with the above Statement of Faith of Regent Preparatory School of Oklahoma.

REV. 09/2016

Parental Resolve and Covenant (revised Dec. 2024)

Whereas, the mission of Regent Preparatory School is “to provide academically able students with a challenging educational experience designed to help them know, love, and practice that which is true, good, and excellent and to prepare them to live purposefully and intelligently in the service of God and man”, and

Whereas, it is ideal when home, school, church, and community work together to provide children with a spiritual vision, a moral compass, and an excellent education, and

Whereas, God ordains parents as the primary shepherds over children, their training, and their education,

Therefore, we resolve and covenant to join with Regent Preparatory School, utilizing the philosophies and guidelines expressed below, in order to bring about the successful education of our children.

1. Parents are the primary spiritual influence in the lives of their children as ordained by God. Regent is not the church and does not attempt to assume that role in the lives of its families. There are areas of primary doctrine upon which it is important for all Regent families to agree and these areas are included in the Regent Statement of Faith (signed by parents during the admissions process and by all parents annually). Areas considered secondary doctrine are best left for parents to address within the home.

2a. The curriculum is based on the years of experience gained by several classical, Christian schools. The curriculum instituted by the Regent Board is not optional, because it is designed to work together as an integrated experience. Parents may occasionally object to one facet of the curriculum. For example, parents may love the reading program, but may not see the value of memorization, the study of Latin, or the study of high-level vocabulary. However, parents are expected to support the curriculum at Regent, realizing that at any given time, particular aspects of the curriculum are not a child's or parent's preferred area of interest. Supportive attitudes at home will positively impact the child's attitude and performance at school.

Deut. 6:4-9 and Eph.6:4 speak to each parent's role in their children's education. A great school needs the active participation of parents. Everyone has skills or knowledge that can contribute to advancing the educational mission. The school encourages constructive comments and suggestions that are compatible with its mission and philosophy. Specifically, parents agree to support all of the academic assignments, projects, and daily work that are required of their student(s), including Bible reading, initialing daily/weekly homework assignments, recitation practice, etc...

The school values family time and will always attempt to respect it. Given the school's challenging academic goals, each parent will need to adapt their co-curricular schedules to allow for the completion of daily assignments. Guidelines are established for homework within the grammar school and are also published for secondary grades. These guidelines are based on a reasonable amount of time for most students.

2b. Regent would like for every student to reach his/her individual potential. Academic competition between students is not the focus. Wise parents understand that modern society measures success by paying a great deal of attention to the outward marks of achievement (grades). Students at Regent may or may not receive uniformly high grades. If parents' and students' greatest academic priority is uniformly high grades, Regent may not be the best choice of schools. But, if parents seek superior curriculum and meaningful achievement, it is an excellent choice.

3. Policies for student conduct, courtesy, classroom behavior, foreign articles, and disciplinary measures are described in the Student Handbook, are based on our Christian beliefs, and should be understood and accepted by parents and students. These long-standing guidelines are the standards the school seeks to attain.

4. Regent encourages a biblical method for the resolution of conflict or disagreement. If a problem surfaces with a teacher, the Headmaster, a board member, or others, parents are asked to pray first, then meet directly with the person involved. If an agreement cannot be reached, both parties should approach the next level of authority. Proverbs 26:20-22 and Ephesians 4:29-32 discuss inappropriate methods of dealing with conflict and encourage the avoidance of gossip. All interactions should be conducted in a way that is respectful of the parties involved.
